Our Vision

The vision for this ministry is to equip individuals & local churches to become more actively involved in Christian mission opportunities and service.

To our Friends and Partners

A big thank you to our partners in this ministry! God has used you to serve Him and those that have been overlooked or forgotten, the least.

Thank you!

We would love to come and share our ministry with your church, Sunday School, circle, civic group, school or community event.

Please continue to pray for this ministry as we reach out to the least and forgotten in our world!

Unto the Least of His

March 2014

A word from Nancy

For those who don't know me, let me introduce myself. I am Nancy, Bobby's wife, mother of 4 children, and grandmother to 6. Bobby graciously let me write for his column in this month's newsletter. As Bobby has said, I am the silent partner in the ministry. I don't claim to be a great writer, but I am much more comfortable with writing than I am speaking publically!

Well, Spring is finally right around the corner! If you're like me, by this time of year you are ready for it to get here. Of course, by the end of July or August we will be looking forward to Fall or maybe even Winter! Always looking for the next thing, right? Are we ever content? Sometimes we are, but how long does it last? And we know what the Bible says about being content: ...for I have learned to be content with whatever I have. (Philippians 4:11)

I am definitely a work in progress when it comes to contentment! One of my favorite things to do is move furniture around. Bobby teases many times about being afraid to come home at night with the lights out because he will bump into something that wasn't there when he left! For some reason I can't seem to be content for very long before I am at it again.

While being discontented with the placement of my furniture may not be what Paul was talking about, we can definitely learn from his words in our everyday life. He continues on to say, "I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little. For I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength."

My mother, Essie Zipperer, just recently passed away. Believe it or not, this is one of things I must learn to be content in. My life is now different. The woman I loved most in the world and that also loved me most in this world is now gone. Be content with death? Are you kidding? I felt like I lost my footing, my foundation! But guess what, Paul gave us the secret! I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength.

So enjoy today, with whatever it brings! Christ will give you the strength you need. Just rest in Him and be content!

What's Going on in Ghana?

After speaking with Rev. Eddie Enim we learned there were some immediate needs for hospital beds and school desks. Praise God that some of the needs are being met by generous donors! Thanks to our partners, we were able to purchase 100 desks!

Bailey Pritcher of Savannah and I are going to be in Ghana in March-April. We will be conducting a Christian basketball camp for the local school. We plan to visit the hospital and also look at a few local villages with some water issues. Please keep this mission in your prayers!

Three-fold Mission

Haiti

We had a nice 3 fold mission trip to Haiti. Medical, evangelism, and construction. Rev Bill Burch of Mountain View UMC in Woodstock led the team.

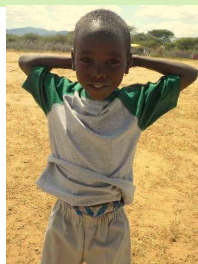

Our Partner from the Congo

One of our water well partners, Dr. Kimba Evarisite from the DR Congo, visits Calvary UMC in Swainsboro. Rev. Nick Hazelton is the pastor.

Answering the Call!

In December 2013, we collected hand-made clothes and baby blankets for God's children in Northern Kenya, Africa and made the delivery in January 2014. As you can see, your generosity has made a difference! Thank you for giving to the Lord's work, because it has made a difference for these beautiful children. They are so appreciative of you hearing the words of Jesus, "I was naked and you clothed me!"

This is Thomas, age 5. His mother died during childbirth and his grandmother takes care of him. They recently discovered he was blind. As you can see from his smile, he was thrilled to have new clothes and couldn't believe anyone would want to give him something so important and nice.

There were so many smiles and so much joy in Samburu as baby blankets were distributed. Every baby in the small African village near Isiolo received a new blanket! The women of the village kept commenting that they had never seen anything like it and that "the material is so strong!" The mothers really loved and appreciated these baby blankets!

Showing the Love!

Unto the Least of His partnered with the congregation of Grace Point Church of Macon on Valentine's Day. Chris Dority, pastor, and Bobby visited Appling Middle School and delivered a rose to each girl letting her know she is beautiful and special! There were approximately 316 girls.
