A Word from Bobby

There is no place like home!

There comes a point in your life when you realize how quickly time goes by and how quickly it has gone. With that being understood I realize that I have married a beautiful servant of the Lord. Nancy and I have been married for 39 years. I answered the call to ministry early in our marriage and we were appointed to serve our first church in Toombs County in 1986. Did you notice that "I" answered the call, but "we" were appointed to the church? In this journey of marriage and ministry we have grown in our love for each other, people, and God. The road that we have traveled has been an exciting adventure.

About 2 years ago we were visiting our home town of Savannah and we went to eat at the Oglethorpe Mall with her 5 sweet sisters (at least most of the time). I noticed how Nancy and her sisters were laughing and enjoying their time together. The question entered into my mind, was it time to come home? I thought about how much I travel and how often I am gone, also, remembering my first charge to my ministry was to my wife and children. Nancy and I entered the conversation of where we felt God could best use us in our fall season of life. It was with much conversation and prayer that we felt compelled to finish up our time on earth in the old home place of Nancy's mother and father.

After much prayer and consulting with the Unto the Least of His Board, we have moved the ministry to Savannah where we will finish the mission on earth. We are always thankful for our friends and partners in this ministry. The new address for Unto the Least of His is:

World Views are changed by Missions

It's interesting to me how things change over time. I was looking back on some photos I've taken in the past and came across this one from Kenya. I've overlooked this picture probably 50 times and thought "okay" and just moved on. But now that I have kids, the boy in this picture speaks a different story, one that hits close to home.

He holds onto the jacket of an adult--like my son does when someone new comes along. He peeks out with a beautiful smile and telling eyes--like my daughter does behind the guard of her mother. I love this kid now and he's not even mine, but he is like mine.

This is what amazes me as I grow older: not how different we all are, but how similar we all are. Different continents. Different futures. Same family. I happen to believe that one day we'll get to have the biggest family reunion ever, and on that day we'll look back and marvel, not at our differences, but at our sameness.

Imagine living in a world without a Bible. The apostle Paul understood this dilemma and he wrote these beautiful words.

14 How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? 15 And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"

Romans 10:14-15

Sweet Depaul lady receives her very first Bible. Praise God!

The pastors in Central America are having some successful experiences with the incubators. One indigenous and marginalized pastor has been able to enhance his family's living standards by hatching the eggs then bartering his chickens. It is an exciting time.

GOOD NEWS from Kenya!!

Construction has begun on the new Josena Clinic! Materials have been delivered to the site and the team is already building the clinic.

We are so excited about this rural clinic, which will provide access to medicine and health care to thousands of villagers over time.

Thank you, Bobby and Nancy Gale and Unto the Least of His partners for this life-saving blessing!

Many blessings,

Dipa, Naomi, Tina and the Samburu people
