

A Word from Bobby

Spreading Love, Hope and Joy

As the holiday season approaches, we are filled with joy and gratitude for another advent season. Our Christmas journey of spreading love, hope and compassion to others in need of seeing or hearing God’s Christmas message is important work.

We are illuminating the lives of the marginalized through the building of solar powered medical clinics, providing handmade items like reusable menstrual pads, beautiful dresses and hand bags. Friendship Methodist Church and Gray Methodist Church are nearing the completion of the 10th and 11th clinics. Also, we are helping to build healthier African Villages and India Communities with water well projects and water towers. Clean water helps to eliminate diarrhea, cholera, dysentery, typhoid, polio issues and many more water borne diseases.

Our friends and partners are spreading God’s cheer across local communities with various outreach projects such as the Dexter Boys and Girls Club of America. These clubs provide life enhancing programs and character development experiences. Also, we have built handicap ramps and putting families back into their homes.

In this season of giving, we are helping the Canas Methodist Church with Rev. Dimas Alvarado of Costa Rica in Central America. Jonathan Hartsfield and Rev. Josh Gale have given great leadership to the Costa Rican congregation. Even though their congregation is small their love for God and others is large. We hope to continue to assist this congregation and others in the area.

Also, we are proud of the Wet Feet Ministry with and their mission to strengthen families and marriages. Mitchell and Jennifer Smith are doing a great job of restoring hope in a broken world. Soon, they will be working in Jamaica along side another outreach ministry.

Amidst the hustle and bustle, let’s take a moment to reflect on the hope and goodness that Christ brings to our lives and world. It’s a time to cherish our blessings, embrace each other with love and find joy in giving back to God’s creation.

Thank you for being a light of hope in our world and Merry Christmas to you and your family!

I want to give a shout out to Rev. Carl Bernhardt, Rev. Gary Boyles, Lizel Peterson and the youth of Andrew Methodist Church in Kathleen, GA. Your Savannah ministries have touched so many lives that only heaven can know for sure the numbers.

It was truly an honor to give and receive communion with our friend, Rev. Gordon B. Dukes, Jr. The mission team effectively completed two projects and each of the homeowners were grateful for their labors of love.

We are excited for these good works and we want to thank the Busy Bees of Moulton UMC and their sister churches from the Moulton, Alabama area for their labors of love. These beautiful handmade bags and dresses will be going to Ghana, West Africa soon.

Our good friend, the late Rev. Wesley Jones, is smiling from Heaven.

The problem is meeting Team Jesus. We are proud to be on His team as light and salt to a darkened world. A big shoutout to Christian Ingram and Rev. Jimbo Dominey as we headed to Petersham, Massachusetts to help restore a bathroom.

It's always fun to attend old-timey camp meetings at Camp Tygart. The Word of God was preached by Bishop David Graves, we enjoyed great singing and we had a wonderful meal together. It was great leadership by Rev. Dr. Paula Lewis.

Leadership is not about having all the answers, but about guiding others towards their best. It is leveling the field so others will have a better life. There are over 100 children using this Boys and Girls Club facility a day. Rev. Tommy Veal, Rev. Don Black, Rev. Josh Gale and the building team are providing an amazing work of mercy and leadership.

From our family to yours
Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Blessed New Year!
